INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Danville - Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity
Danville, Virginia

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Danville - Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2022, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, cash flows, and functional expenses for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Danville – Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity as of August 28, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Danville – Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Danville – Pittsylvania Habitat for Humanity's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Southeastern KFC Franchisee Association, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Southeastern KFC Franchisee Association, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited Danville - Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity's 2021 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated February 14, 2023. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended June 30, 2022, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Organization and Nature of Activities

The Danville - Pittsylvania County Habitat for Humanity (the Organization) was organized and incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia as a not-for-profit organization in June 1991. The Organization is a local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, Inc., (Habitat) a nondenominational Christian not-for-profit organization whose purpose is to create decent, affordable housing for those in need, and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience with people everywhere. Although Habitat assists with information, resources, training, publications, prayer support, and in other ways, the Organization is primarily and directly responsible for its own operations. The Organization receives its support principally through contributions, grants, sale of completed houses, and net proceeds from its ReStore operations. The ReStore accepts donations of building materials, appliances, furniture, and household items which are sold to the general public to help support the administrative and operating expenses of the Organization.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation:

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Organization prepares its financial statements in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 958 Not-For-Profit Entities. The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: without donor restrictions net assets and with donor restriction net assets. A description of net asset categories follows:

Without Donor Restrictions Net Assets - Represent resources that are not subject to any donor-imposed restrictions and which the Organization's Board of Directors has discretionary control in using to carry out operations of the Organization in accordance with its bylaws. An increase in net assets without donor restrictions represents the excess of total revenue without donor restrictions, gains, and other support over program and administrative expenses; whereas a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions represents the excess of program and administrative expenses over revenue without donor restrictions, gains, and other support.

With Donor Restrictions Net Assets - Represent resources that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that can be met either by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time. Net assets with donor restrictions at June 30, 2022 are related to grants received to be used for designated purposes as specified in the grant agreements. Net assets with donor restrictions were $140,274 and $45,478 at June 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Expiration of donor - imposed restrictions:

The expiration of donor - imposed restriction(s) of a contribution is recognized in the period in which the restriction expires and at that time the related resources are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions. A restriction expires when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition:

Contributions of cash or other assets are recognized when the cash is received or when ownership of donated assets are transferred to the Organization. Donated capital assets are recorded at estimated fair value on the date of donation. Unconditional promises to give are recorded as made. Contributed support is unrestricted or restricted depending on the existence of donor stipulations that limit the use of the support.

Contributed services:

The Organization receives a substantial amount of services donated by volunteers in carrying out the activities of the Organization. Donated services are recognized in the financial statements at their fair value if the services require specialized skills and the services are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and the service would typically need to be purchased if not donated or if the services enhance or create an asset. Although the Organization utilized the services of outside volunteers, no amounts have been reported in these financial statements for donated services since they do not meet the criteria for recognition under generally accepted accounting principles.

Functional expenses:

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and changes in net assets. The statement of functional expenses presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program and supporting services benefited.

Cash and cash equivalents:

For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments which are readily convertible into cash to be cash equivalents.

Restricted cash:

Restricted cash consists primarily of amounts received from homeowners, for whom the Organization holds the mortgage, for real estate taxes, and insurance. Amounts are held in escrow until such time as tax payments or insurance premiums become due.

Mortgage loans receivable:

The Organization sells homes to program participants in exchange for noninterest bearing mortgage notes. Interest is imputed on the mortgage notes as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The notes are secured by a deed of trust on the purchased home and are payable to the Organization over terms of up to thirty (30) years. Mortgage notes receivable are reported on the Statements of Financial Position, net of the unamortized mortgage discount.

The discount is recorded at the date of sale of the home as the difference between the face value of the mortgage loan and the present value of the loan. Loan discounts are amortized on a straight line basis over the life of the loan. Loans that become more than ninety (90) days past due are subject to having foreclosure proceedings started. It is anticipated that all mortgages are ultimately collectible even if foreclosure becomes necessary and accordingly, there is no provision for uncollectible mortgages.

Inventory:

Purchased inventory is carried at cost and is accounted for on a specific identification basis. Purchased inventory generally consists of land held for development, construction in progress, and building materials for homes. Donated inventory used in home construction is recorded at estimated fair value as permitted by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. For ReStore operations, contributed inventory is not recorded due to the uncertainty of its value and in accordance with FASB (ASC) 958-605-25, Not-for-Profit Entities - Revenue Recognition.

Property and equipment:

Property and equipment acquisitions in excess of $500 are recorded at cost if purchased, or fair value at date of gift if contributed. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives as follows:

Classification	Estimated Useful Life in Years
Buildings and Improvements	15 - 40
Equipment and Other	5 - 10

Commitments and contingencies:

Contracts with government agencies require the fulfillment of certain conditions. Failure to fulfill the conditions could result in the return of funds to the agencies or the suspension of future funds. Although that is a possibility, the Board of Directors deems the contingencies remote.

Advertising:

The Organization expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021 was $12,993 and $17,157, respectively.

Deferred revenue:

Recognition of revenue from grants, support, and fund-raising events relating to future periods is deferred until the period in which the related event takes place.

Income tax status:

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code under a group exemption letter granted to Habitat International. There is no unrelated business income which would be subject to taxation; and therefore, there is no provision for income taxes. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organizations' Federal Exempt Organization Tax Returns (Form 990) for fiscal years ended in 2021, 2020, and 2019 are open to examination by the IRS and generally remain open for three years after they are filed.

Comparative financial information:

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Organization's financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2021, from which the summarized information was derived.

Fair value measurements:

Assets and liabilities are measured at fair value, which is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, standards established a three-tier value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority; Level 2 inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, are observable either directly or indirectly; and Level 3 inputs are unobservable in which there is little or no market data, which requires the Organization to develop its own assumptions. The Organization uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its assets. When available, the Organization measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value.

Reclassification of prior year presentation:

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current year presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on the reported results of operations.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 5. Fair Value Measurements

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used by the Organization for assets measured at fair value:

The Organization's assets, which are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes consist of two types of assets, in which the majority of such assets is real estate. The Organization uses property valuations established by local governmental units for real estate taxation purposes as the measure of value. A similar approach is taken for building products in such that the value has been established by the donors of products who are principally in the trade or business of selling such items to the general public.

The method described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Organization believes the valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the Organization's assets and liabilities measured on a recurring basis:

	Level 1 Inputs	Level 2 Inputs	Level 3 Inputs	Total
June 30, 2022

Note 6. Significant Concentrations

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require disclosure of current vulnerabilities due to certain concentrations. These matters include the following:

Contributions

For the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, approximately 29% and 21% of total grants and contributions were received from one (1) donor.

Mortgage Loans Receivable

For the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, approximately 42.45% and 49.57% of total assets consisted of both the current and non-current noninterest-bearing mortgage loans held by the Organization.

Note 7. Lease Commitments

In February 2015, a lease was signed for the ReStore operations in Danville. The initial term of the lease was $17,000 for the first year of the lease and $24,000 for the second year of the lease. Rent is payable in twelve installments, with each installment due no later than the fifth day of each month.

The Organization shall also pay to Landlord during the third, fourth, and fifth lease years, and any subsequent holdover periods, without any deduction or setoff, a percentage increase in rent that will correlate to any increase in gross revenue for the immediately previous year when compared to two years prior ("percentage increase"). Percentage increase will be an amount calculated by multiplying the annual sales percentage increase in gross revenue from two years prior to the previous year by the combined amount of previous rent and percentage increase for the previous year, up to a maximum combined previous rent and percentage increase of $50,000 ($5 per square foot). If gross revenue declines, rent will be the same as the previous year.

There are no future minimum lease payment commitments under lease.

Lease expense was $29,500 and $32,264 for the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Note 8. Functional Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include occupancy, depreciation, salaries and wages, payroll taxes, professional services, office expenses, and other, which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort.

Note 9. Subsequent Events – Management Review

The Organization must disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated in accordance with the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board. In regard to these financial statements and the notes to these financial statements, the Organization has evaluated all subsequent events through August 28, 2023 the date the Organization's financial statements are available to be issued.
